

Creating a Project
on
www.capcotile.com

One of the most useful features of the new website is the ability to create Projects within the site, and share them with others.

Welcome to CAPCO Tile & Stone!

CAPCO is the largest distributor of Tile and Stone in Colorado. If you do not see what you are looking for here, stop by one of our nine locations or give us a call. One of our friendly salespeople or showroom designers would love to help you create your next beautiful space.

Refin Pietre di Borgogna

Who we are

Italian tile and stone, long associated with timeless style and beauty, is the backbone of CAPCO's product line. CAPCO is privileged to represent over forty factories showcasing porcelain, ceramic, and stone tiles in their nine showrooms. CAPCO purchases the tile directly from the factories, importing the material by container on ships to ports on the east coast. The tile is then transported by rail to Denver where it is delivered to CAPCO's warehouse facility for

What we do

CAPCO is a stocking distributor, maintaining a multi-million dollar inventory to insure the tile or stone you need is there when you need it. Stone slab is imported in much the same way from sources in Italy, Spain, Canada, Brazil, India, and Mexico. In addition, CAPCO has an established network of trading partners domestically to reduce the likelihood of stock shortages. CAPCO's experience and knowledge in the tile and stone market enables them to provide their

Welcome to our new blog. Consider our blog your one-stop source for information about our business. Here, you can: - connect ...

The registration process is accomplished by filling out the form on the Registration page. You get to the Registration page by clicking the big red Register button on the home page.

By registering as a Consumer on our site, you can create Projects on our site, pulling together various products into a basket called a Project. You can comment about each product as you place it in your Project, and at any time you can share that Project with others.

Each Project has a place where the people you invite can review and comment. So, your designer, your tilesetter, your general contractor and your spouse can all view the products in the Project, comment, and you can add or delete products from your Project as needed. We hope you enjoy this new-to-the-industry capability of our site.

If you have an account with CAPCO, or if you are in the trade, you should register as a Service Provider. By doing so, you will be able to see retail pricing, or once authorized by our credit department, you will be able to see your pricing, print your price lists, and do some limited account maintenance.

In either case, we hope you find this site to be one of your favorite destinations on the web. Thanks for stopping by!

Instructions:

- Review our privacy policy.
- Use the form to the right to create a new account.
